

Summer Sounds at the Winter Street Courtyard

6-7pm

ALWAYS FREE!

If raining, concerts will be held in the Library's Sohier Room.

SPONSORED BY THE FRIENDS OF THE BEVERLY PUBLIC LIBRARY

*The main library's Winter St.
Courtyard is already a great place to hang out and study or read, chat with friends or just enjoy the warmer weather,
and it's now even better as the Summer ramps up!*

Join us for SUMMER SOUNDS, a free weekly music series showcasing local talent and filling the courtyard with song.

JULY 5

LOVE LOVE TRIO

Vocal-and-lyric-driven '60s and '70s-inspired rock with love as both a saving grace and dark passion.

July 12

ADRIENNE HOWARD
& LINDA SWICKER

Traditional music from Ireland, Quebec, France, and Appalachia.

July 19

MOLLY PINTO MADIGAN

Hailed for her angelic voice and haunting compositions of folk and traditional music.

July 26

NO CONCERT

But come to hang and enjoy the patio!

August 2

JD DEBRIS & BODEK

Art pop unplugged.

August 9

BOB & JEN STROM

Husband and wife duo with Irish fiddle music, traditional and contemporary folk songs.

August 16

NICK CONSONE & ELEANOR JANE

Singer-songwriter duo from indie rock to soulful blues.

August 23

BOB KRAMER BAND

Acoustic trio, blues/rock/roots with urban and jazz influences.

At the BEVERLY PUBLIC LIBRARY, of course.
