

Beverly Public Library Meeting Room Policy

In keeping with the Library's mission to create welcoming spaces that serve as public commons and encourage civic engagement by offering people opportunities to connect and interact, the Beverly Public Library's meeting rooms are available at no charge for use by community groups for informational, educational or cultural meetings and programs. The library's meeting rooms are a community asset and we encourage their use by community groups when not in use for library programs or meetings held by City of Beverly boards and commissions.

No use of meeting rooms will be allowed that is likely to disturb library patrons in entering and using library facilities, impede library staff in the performance of their duties, or endanger the library building or collection.

The Beverly Public Library subscribes in full to the American Library Association's Library Bill of Rights. The use of meeting rooms does not imply the library's endorsement of any ideas expressed in the meeting nor of the goals, objectives, or ideals of the person or organization using library facilities. No advertisements or announcements implying such endorsement will be permitted.

The Trustees/Director have the authority to deny the use of library facilities to any individuals or groups that fail to comply with the intent and provisions of this policy.
